

IDYLLIC CIVILTÀ CONTADINA

There is no need to choose between two distinct styles when it comes to interior design. After all, diverse textures striking up against each other can create beautiful textures in an otherwise flat space. It is a canvas to beguile and inveigle its guests.

“ The only way to do great work is to love what you do.” - this is Goldfields Concepts' principle. Their passion for creating splendid homes that are a solace to the soul has brought them to HillView Residence. This showhouse by Leisure Passion in Siblibin, Ipoh is a 2450 square feet single story Semi-D. Through this project, a light and cosy modern country styled resort is introduced. The special materials utilised are natural rattan, woven rattan and wooden Louvres panels that connotes summer. The use of rattan lighting also keeps the space with an airy feel due to its lacuna proportions. This variety of texture in each space creates a lively rhythm and makes everything come to life.

A mix of modern textured natural stone, pargeting and wall mirrors are used throughout this showhouse. The front door opens right into the family and dining room. The snug living area has an L-shaped seating area, low round rattan tables with black table tops and Arc floor lamp that faces wooden Louvred panelled walls. Consistent to the country resort feel, the dining room features a black dining table and woven rattan chairs vivified with woven Otus hanging lamps.

The inner area of the showhouse is a well-lit modern country pantry and island that optimise the narrow space with light coloured parquetry cabinets and some dark palette natural stone. The fixtures move upwards to the large windows, emphasising the high ceiling with the help of natural lighting. A string of pendent rattan lights hangs overhead with matching natural rattan bar stools.

There are four resort-like rooms - three cosy bedrooms and a see-through modern study. The designers have cleverly used warm-and-fuzzy light bars to incandesce the open book cabinet - draws the eye from the beige floor tile to the featured shelving up ahead, giving the room an illusion of extra length. A round rattan lounge chair and natural rattan bring about the country atmosphere but it is the bits of green: green cushion, study lamp and plants that subtly give life to the earth tone palette.

Illustrated cane webbing with eye-catching geometric lines accent the master bedroom's wall as it brandishes tastefully against the pargeting walls and country styled vanity. Along with a trendy headboard and modern loft styled bedside tables, a pair of classic textile lampshades and singular rattan string lamp creates a soft inviting presence.

Going for a bright modern atmosphere, the second bedroom has customised full-insert wall cabinets and shelving as its headboard as well as wardrobe in matching designs. The sloped ceiling augments aesthetic grandeur and gives greater appeal to the bedroom.

The third bedroom is significantly down-to-earth for the individual who enjoys a simple country room with no frills. However, pargeting is still used to link it to the rest of the home.

For those who spend a great deal of time in the kitchen, this spacious modern country zone is the dream kitchen. Light beige wooden Louvred wall cabinets and pargeting cabinets line the wall with green wall tiles to bring the outdoors into the interior. Lighted up with natural lighting, a scenic view with a range can be imagined. ☺
